Petitioner Ku. Indira Chaturvedi

Vs.

Contemnors R.C. Sinha

Present: Shri Alok Bakshi, counsel for the petitioner.
Shri Sumesh Bajaj, Govt. Advocate for the respondent.

ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 27th February, 2007)

In this contempt petition, the petitioner alleges that the respondent namely Principal Secretary, Govt. of Chhattisgarh, Department of Higher Education, has not complied with the orders and directions issued by this Court in Writ Petition No.985/2001, dated 07.05.2003. Therefore, a request is made by the petitioner to initiate the contempt proceedings against the respondent and punish him for the alleged act of disobedience of the orders and directions issued by this Court.

(2) Order passed by this Court was some time in the year 2003 and thereafter possibility that the petitioner might have filed a representation and if for some reason that representation has not considered by the respondent, at this stage, it cannot be proper to initiate any proceedings against the respondent. In the interest of both the parties, if a direction is issued to the petitioner to file fresh representation within a month from today and if a direction is issued to the respondent namely, Principal Secretary, Govt. of Chhattisgarh, Department of Higher Education, to consider that representation in accordance with law within three months from today, no prejudice would be caused to the petitioner. In view of the above following:

Order

(1) The contempt petition is disposed of.

(2) The petitioner is directed to file one more representation before the respondent for redressal of all his grievances within one month from today.

(3) If any such representation is made within the time granted by the Court, the respondent has to consider that representation in accordance with law within three months from the date of filing of that representation.

(3) Registry is directed to issue certified copy of the order to the learned Govt. Advocate within 15 days from today. Ordered accordingly.
